Dear Sir or Madam:

Thanks for your letter of July 1, 2005. Please let me explain why this response letter is delayed. I received this letter several months latter after you sent out because you sent it to my old address. In my last letter of June 29, 2005, I reported my address change and my new address (20 Burning Hollow Road, Saddle River, NJ 07458). After I received the letter, I immediately called the examiner Mital Patel and leave message in her mailbox at least five times. I also called legal instruments examiner Halley Massey. But no one return my call. For these reasons, please consider removing my delay fee.

In response to the office action mailed June 07, 2005, please amend my claim of application as in the next page.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely Yours,
